

Journey to the Demon Plateau

The journey begins in Tashkent and will last 5 days. If desired, the program can start with Samarkand, which will shorten the route by two days. A standard Tashkent-Samarkand tour program is waiting for you and we added Urgut and a plateau of stone demons. It is a very beautiful city with interesting, mythical and incredible places. On the way there will be a stop in the garden «Chor Chinor», there are plateaus from 600 years old to 1,160 years old, the girth of some trees is 16m. Then there will be a local bazaar with ancient crafts and a trip to a silk carpet factory with an opportunity to take part in their production. And of course the Plateau of Stone Demons. The place itself has some inexplicable energy. On the plateau is quite surprisingly placed granite layers in the form of improvised sculptures. It is simply impossible not to notice this array because of the uniqueness and unreality of the rock formations that have images of strange monsters and intricate faces of deities, and possibly demons. In ancient times, there were various rituals of sorcerers and pagans and the place was equipped in the altar, where the rites with sacrifice were held.
